GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

22. Plaintiff, WHITNEY INFORMATION NETWORK, was created in 1996 by its CEO, Plaintiff, RUSS WHITNEY, to provide post-secondary educational and training products and services in the areas of real estate investing, business development, financial investment and asset protection real estate to students world-wide.

23. Plaintiffs conduct approximately 150 real estate free preview training programs per month with approximately 24,000 new students registered each month.

24. Furthermore, Plaintiffs spend millions of dollars each year on infomercials and other advertising to promote their products and services.

25. Plaintiffs' training programs are designed to present their students with the maximum amount of education by offering cutting-edge real estate and investing materials and educational trainings to facilitate success for their students.

26. Plaintiffs are the owners of statutory rights, in addition to common law rights, for “RUSS WHITNEY,” “WHITNEY,” “WHITNEY INFORMATION NETWORK,” and “WHITNEY EDUCATION GROUP,” (collectively referred to as “Plaintiffs’ Marks”) in connection with educational and training services in the fields of real estate investing, business development, financial investment and asset protection.

27. Plaintiff, WIN, is the owner of pending service mark applications for “RUSS WHITNEY” and “WHITNEY” in the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Serial Nos. 76179948 and 75889257 respectively. See Copy of Pending Registrations attached hereto as Composite Exhibit “A” and incorporated herein by reference.

28. For many years prior to the acts of Defendants complained of herein, Plaintiffs have achieved wide-spread and substantial sales of their products and services designated by Plaintiffs’ Marks in commerce.

29. Plaintiffs’ Marks are, and have been, so widely used by Plaintiffs and others to identify Plaintiffs’ products and services that said products and services are now, and long prior to the acts of Defendants complained of herein, generally known among the trade and the public by Plaintiffs’ Marks.

30. By virtue of long and continuous use by Plaintiffs, and since long prior to the acts of Defendants complained of herein, Plaintiffs’ Marks have developed secondary meaning and significance, and have been readily recognizable by the public and the trade as a designation associated with Plaintiffs.

31. Plaintiffs' Marks are now, and since long before the acts of Defendants complained of herein, associated in the public mind exclusively with Plaintiffs and their products and services. Plaintiffs' Marks have come to identify Plaintiffs' products and services and to distinguish said products and services from those of others.

32. As a means to promote their products and services, Plaintiffs created Internet websites to enable consumers to learn about Plaintiffs' programs, and to provide a conduit for prospective and current students to learn about and register for Plaintiffs' educational and training services as well as to purchase educational materials created by and distributed by Plaintiffs.

33. Plaintiffs rely on consumers' knowledge of their famous Marks when consumers are searching for Plaintiffs' products and services on the Internet. Consumers can find Plaintiffs' website by entering Plaintiffs' Marks in any Internet search engine and the search engine will list search results, which should rank Plaintiffs' website as the top website for information based on Plaintiffs' Marks.

34. However, Defendants' website appears as a search result on various search engines when consumers input Plaintiffs' Marks in the Internet search engine causing consumers to mistakenly believe that Defendants' website is sponsored or published by Plaintiffs. See Internet Search Positions for "www.ripoffreport.com" attached hereto as Composite Exhibit "B" and incorporated herein by reference.

35. Defendants publish websites known as "www.ripoffreport.com" and "www.ripoffrevenge.com" for commercial and economic gain.

36. Defendants hold themselves out to the public as a "worldwide consumer reporting website and publication, by consumers for consumers” to file and document consumer complaints about “companies or individuals who rip off consumers.” See Copy of Defendants’ home page attached hereto as Composite Exhibit “C” and incorporated herein by reference.

37. Defendants solicit consumers to submit complaints about any company that has allegedly “ripped” the consumer off.

38. Upon information and belief, once Defendants receive the complaints from the consumers they review them and choose which complaints to publish on their website, “www.ripoffreport.com.”

39. Defendants’ publication of these consumer complaints is with reckless disregard for the truth as Defendants do not verify such complaints for accuracy; rather they simply publish the chosen complaints and imply that the company named in such complaint is “ripping off” consumers.

40. Furthermore, while on Defendants’ website, “www.ripoffreport.com,” consumers can click on a link titled “Rip Off Revenge” where consumers are directed to Defendants’ second website, “www.ripoffrevenge.com.”

41. Through Rip Off Revenge, Defendants offer to sell consumers either a service wherein Defendants will “help victims collect in a few days or hours,” or consumers can pay $19.95 and receive a “Do-it-Yourself Guide: How to get Rip-Off Revenge and your money back too...” See Copy of Defendants’ home page attached hereto as Composite Exhibit “D” and incorporated herein by reference.

42. Defendants' website, "www.ripoffreport.com," also offers advertising banner ads for sale, which advertisers can pay Defendants money and their company name and logo will appear on Defendants' website. See copy of Defendants' advertising page attached hereto as Composite Exhibit "E" and incorporated herein by reference.

43. Further, Defendants solicit Internet consumers for "donations" "for the high cost of providing [the] service." See Copy of Defendants' solicitation page attached hereto as Exhibit "F" and incorporated herein by reference.

44. Here, Defendants publish and make available for viewing more than a dozen false stories about Plaintiffs with reckless disregard for the truth of such stories. See stories attached hereto as Composite Exhibit "G" and incorporated herein by reference.

45. As consumers search for Plaintiffs' products and services on the Internet by using Plaintiffs' Marks, they are directed to Defendants' website as a result of the search, and once consumers are on Defendants' website, they are subjected to the false and defamatory articles published by Defendants about Plaintiffs.

46. Defendants have misappropriated the goodwill associated with Plaintiffs' Marks, for their own commercial use and for their own illegal financial benefit.

47. Defendants are using Plaintiffs' Marks for the purpose of, amongst other things, diverting "hits" and attention of Internet users, initially searching for Plaintiffs' goods and services, away from Plaintiffs' website and directing them to Defendants' website.

48. Defendants' use in commerce of Plaintiffs' Marks is likely to cause consumer confusion, initial interest confusion, to cause mistake, or to deceive customers and prospective customers as to the origin or sponsorship of Defendants' website, products and services, and to cause consumers to initially mistakenly believe that Defendants' website is a product of Plaintiffs', or is sponsored, licensed, authorized or approved by Plaintiffs, all to the detriment of Plaintiffs, the trade, and the public.

49. Such diversion has resulted in, and continues to result in, substantial and irreparable harm to Plaintiffs in Lee County, Florida.

50. Defendants' aforesaid acts have harmed Plaintiffs' reputation, severely damaged Plaintiffs' goodwill, and have diverted substantial sales from Plaintiffs.

51. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

COUNT I – FEDERAL TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT

52. Plaintiffs reallege and reaver paragraphs 1 through 51 as if fully set forth herein.

53. With full knowledge and awareness of Plaintiffs' ownership and prior use of the "RUSS WHITNEY" and "WHITNEY" marks, Defendants have intentionally used in commerce, and upon information and belief, will continue to intentionally use the marks in commerce, which use is likely to cause consumer confusion or initial interest confusion, to cause mistake or deceive consumers and the public at large.

54. Defendants' aforesaid acts constitute infringement of Plaintiffs' rights in violation of § 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114 and § 1125, and upon information and belief, Defendants' use of Plaintiffs' marks is intentional and willful.

55. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, WHITNEY INFORMATION NETWORK, INC. and RUSS WHITNEY, demand judgment be entered in their favor against all Defendants for violation of § 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114 and § 1125, award Plaintiffs recovery for violation of rights, profits, damages, costs and attorney fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, injunctive relief pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116, and for such further relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT II – FALSE DESIGNATION OF ORIGIN, FALSE DESCRIPTION AND FALSE REPRESENTATION UNDER 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)

56. Plaintiffs reallege and reaver paragraphs 1 through 51 as if fully set forth herein.

57. Defendants have intentionally used, and upon information and belief, will continue to use in commerce Plaintiffs' marks, which use constitutes false designation(s) of origin, false or misleading description(s) of fact, or false or misleading representation(s) of fact, which are likely to cause confusion, initial interest confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association with Plaintiffs, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' goods, services or commercial activities by Plaintiffs.

58. Defendants' aforesaid acts constitute unfair competition, false designation of origin, and/or false description or representation in violation of § 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

59. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, WHITNEY INFORMATION NETWORK, INC. and RUSS WHITNEY, demand judgment be entered in their favor against all Defendants for violation of § 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114 and § 1125, award Plaintiffs recovery for violation of rights, profits, damages, costs and attorney fees pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117, injunctive relief pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1116, and for such further relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT III – COMMON LAW TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT

60. Plaintiffs reallege and reaver paragraphs 1 through 51 as if fully set forth herein.

61. Defendants' aforesaid acts constitute false designation(s) of origin, false or misleading description(s) of fact, or false or misleading representation(s) of face, which are likely to cause confusion, initial interest confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive as to the affiliation, connection, or association with Plaintiffs, or as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' goods, services or commercial activities by Plaintiffs.

62. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, WHITNEY INFORMATION NETWORK, INC. and RUSS WHITNEY, demand judgment be entered in their favor against all Defendants for violation of Plaintiffs' marks, award Plaintiffs recovery for violation of rights, profits, damages, costs and, injunctive relief and for such further relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT IV – DEFAMATION PER SE OF BUSINESS REPUTATION

63. Plaintiffs reallege and reaver paragraphs 1 through 51 as if fully set forth herein.

64. Defendants' websites were created for commercial and economic gain and thus the selected stories published by Defendants are designed to entice customers to purchase Defendants' product, services and advertising opportunities.

65. The stories published by Defendants regarding Plaintiffs are false and were published with malice and reckless disregard for the truth or falsity of such stories with the intent to injure Plaintiffs, their business reputation and to illegally divert customers away from Plaintiffs.

66. Defendants do not verify the truth or accuracy of the stories contained on their website, Defendants simply publish the stories and hold Plaintiffs out to the public as "ripping off" their customers.

67. The stories published by Defendants contain false information about specific products and services produced and provided by Plaintiffs, specifically claiming, inter alia, "Russ Whitney Lied about the 3 day seminar ripoff Cape Coral, Florida," "Russ Whitney ripoff Cape Coral, Florida," Russ Whitney, Scam Report," "Russ Whitney Deceptive Business Practices," and "Russ Whitney ripoff, dishonest, fraudulent, no service, ripped off and scammed, screwed others too..." just to name a few. See Composite Exhibit "G."

68. The false statements of fact published on Defendants' website are clearly unambiguous and when read and construed by Internet users searching for Plaintiffs' products and services, the libelous nature of such statements are clear.

69. Defendants charge Plaintiffs' business and CEO, Russ Whitney, as unscrupulous, dishonest and unworthy of confidence through the publication of such false and defamatory stories.

70. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' publication of the defamatory information, Defendants have inflicted an immeasurable amount of damage and injury upon Plaintiffs' business and reputation, including, but not limited to, loss of significant profits and loss of goodwill.

71. As Plaintiffs' principal place of business is located in Cape Coral, Lee County, Florida, the bulk of the damages and injury to Plaintiffs business and reputation has occurred in Florida.

72. Defendants' statements have, at all times material hereto, been directed and continue to be directed to a citizen of the State of Florida.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, WHITNEY INFORMATION NETWORK, INC. and RUSS WHITNEY, demand judgment be entered in their favor against all Defendants for compensatory and consequential damages, punitive damages, post judgment interest, and injunctive relief, court costs and for such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

This sort of information is often very helpful to an investigation and always needed.

WHISTLEBLOWERS

Employees who want to expose corruption should file a Rip-off Report™. Any employees who do so should be protected by Federal Whistleblower Laws, additionally; Rip-off Report™ treats all victims as a confidential source. Remember, we are a publication; and we will never voluntarily reveal your identity. Instead we will protect our sources under the First Amendment of the US Constitution

DOING BUSINESS WITH THE COMPANY OR INDIVIDUAL REPORTED...

Consumers, just because a Company or Individual is reported on Rip-off Report™ does not necessarily mean you should not do business with them. By reading the experiences of other consumers, you will now be able to make more educated decisions, because now you know what to watch out for.

USE YOUR REPORT TO GET WHAT IS COMING TO YOU

Faxing your Rip-off Report™ to the Company or Individual you have just reported can serve as a very valuable negotiating tool.

Include in your negotiation that you have the ability to UPDATE your Report and reflect their good business practices by explaining that their eagerness to satisfy the complaint and make things right will be seen by the entire world. Also, explain that failure to respond/rectify the situation will also be seen.

YOU MUST NOT call them threatening to file a report if they do not comply with your demands... this may be construed as Blackmail! You must first file a Rip-off Report™, then fax them a copy, offering them a chance to rectify the wrong that they did to you. Explain that then, and only then, you will UPDATE your Rip-off Report™ in a positive way; if deserved.

ORGANIZING CLASS ACTION LAWSUITS
VICTIMS & LAWYERS, WHO WANT TO SUE COMPANIES OR INDIVIDUALS REPORTED

Victims & attorneys who are interested in pursuing litigation against a particular company reported on this website may contact us directly. It is inappropriate to solicit business using this website other than through prior arrangement. This is largely because we need to ensure, the best we can, that our readers are not again being taken advantage of..

If you see a company with a good number of Rip-off Reports™, we have the database of contact information. We will e-mail those victims to contact you. Often we have additional information which does not appear on the victims

Rip-off Report™. We receive thousands of e-mails weekly on Rip-off businesses. We also have contact data on many of those victims as well.

We are anxious and willing to join forces with victims and attorneys to stand up for the rights of consumers and help them get justice. E-mail us. Both victims and attorneys should send their e-mails to:

ClassAction@ripoffreport.com

MORE IMPORTANT TO FILE ON RIP-OFF REPORT™ THAN WITH BBB & WE'RE JUST AS IMPORTANT AS ATTORNEYS GENERAL OR INVESTIGATIVE AGENCIES

Many government sites (and the BBB) are only in place to collect all the information from you, the consumer; in most cases, never making it available for others to see. Listing your complaint on many Government sites is usually no better than filing with the Better Business Bureau (BBB). In fact, utilizing such sites is often just a waste of time; giving you false hope. Perhaps most frustrating is that the federal agencies tasked to investigate these disreputable enterprises receive tax dollars to do so, yet come to badbusinessbureau.com for the results of our investigations and data, which we collect at no cost to the consumer while benefiting them.

By failing to make this information available publicly, it makes it harder for consumers to get educated about exactly what scams they should watch out for. In addition, when these agencies fail to make these individual complaints public, consumers are robbed of the opportunity to know how bad a Company or Individual really is, and why.

On the other hand, many government agencies have and do come to the Rip-off Report™ for information. We have assisted, and continue to assist many government agencies for some time now, including local and state police departments, the FBI, FTC and Attorney General offices from around the country

Since all the Reports are out in the open for everyone to see, in a way, this embarrasses these agencies into doing something about these scams when they see so many Reports on a Company or Individual.

Unfortunately, many (not all) Attorneys General Offices and government agencies will not move against a rip-off unless there will be some sort of publicity, associated with some political hay to be made. Additionally, they normally won't take action if the Rip-off does not exceed $50,000. However, your Reports have helped to change this. Reporting your experiences on Rip-off Report™ is the next best thing to getting your story on TV or in a newspaper. In fact, many national TV networks and several local TV stations from all around the country come to the Rip-off Report™ for information. They do this because they know that the BBB, Attorneys General, and other agencies are not reliable or cooperative sources when compared to Rip-off Report™. News stations know that they will get information from us that are unobtainable elsewhere.

Rip-off Report™ has instigated many local and national stories that have resulted in help for victims worldwide, in one way or another. Now that the government has cut back spending even more in this area, this dollar amount required to get the attention of investigative agencies will likely get even higher. This means that we can expect even less action, since fewer people and resources will be available to work on all these Rip-offs.

Additionally, by filing a Rip-off Report™, you might be contacted by one of us to notify you to make contact with a law firm that has shown interest in your case. We get requests every week for class action lawsuits; bringing victims together with lawyers willing to sue the company after reading your filed Rip-off Report™.

STAY AWAY FROM RUSS WHITNEY - THIS GUY IS CROOKED....

What ever this guy is selling [fraudlently pushing], stay away, he makes his money mostly by trying to act like an expert,with no college education. His website is wonderful, you would think he was an expert. He is good at promising people a money making real estate system that does not work. He walks off with the cash, and you loose your money....He tries to sell you more...It happened to me...his acting like an expert is only part the course! And as for the OTC stock update on his company, how about Russ....STOP ROBBING PEOPLE, and be a decent person and give people their money back!!! Then your stock would be valued at nothing!

Stop the Russ Whitney Rip Off

I went to a free seminar given by Whitney and saw several people giving away lots of money to become realestate millionaires.

I'm thinking there should be a way for some organization, like ripoffreport, to contact all the attorney generals in each state to give them the heads up regarding dishonest business practices of guys like Russ Whitney.

Thanks for letting me say my two cents worth.

In today's society, you must be careful in any dealings with ANY person or persons claiming to have "the answer" to your financial woes.

You cannot take it for granted that ANYONE'S plan for their financial deliverance is the answer which will work for you.

You must remember that when you attend any of the free seminars designed to inform you of a way to "relieve your financial burdens", they already know that your mind is open to learning an "easier" way to make money. Therefore, you are opening the doors to these people, allowing them access to your soul.

STOP going to the seminars, cut down their audience, and these types of individuals will dissappear on their own. Without an audience, they are dead in the water.

Make sense?

this is not a get rich quick scheme!!

I get so tired of people looking to get rich quick and then when they find something that requires, which you are told about from the very beginning, hard work and lots of sweat they freak out and say it is a rip-off. i have been in the mortgage industry for over 15 years and this is JUST ANOTHER TOOL TO USE in your desire to be self-employed. they tell you if you work it you can make money, they also tell you if you DON'T work it you won't. GEE, WHAT A CONCEPT!!!

just using the knowledge i learned in the free seminar, i have found in two days of working the system 3 properties. all are motivated and we will bring in a net income of around 3-3,500 per month for the 3!! we figured to keep living at the same income we are at now we need to have 15 rentals bringing a net income of $731 per month per property. that does not include what we will make off of wholesale,etc. and this is only from the information from the first seminar!!

we bought a package deal which includes wholesale, foreclosures and manufactured homes. comes with the millionaire u and the mentoring program comes with it. sure it was a lot of money but this is a business and this is tax deductible for your business so what have you lost? sure they try and sell you more, but after all we are adults and it is OUR decision to say yes or no. but remember this, when you go to school to be a doctor you can't stop at an assoc. degree(2yrs) and say oh great now they want more schooling to be a Dr.think about it. way to much crying and whinning. maybe those that do are the ones who won't make it and then there will be more for us! what a wonderful thought!have a great day!! :-)

Whitney supporters or employees

I have a friend that is a former Whitney employee. His job was to surf the internet and post favorable information about Mr. Whitney's programs on sites that contain complaints about Mr. Whitney.

If you look at any site on which there is a rebuttal to a Whitney complaint the pro-whitney posters all use very similar scenarios. They all found 3-4 properties 3-5 days after attending his seminar and all will generate a profit of approx $1000 each. Many use the Dr. analogy and many use the "same phone number for the last 20 years line" and often call those making the report "whiners" or accuse them of "killing others dreams".

My friend had a "cue card" of information that he used the same info on every site. Interestingly he was told to post 75% of the time as a woman as it made the post "more empowering".

I think sites like this are great for consumers and don't like to see the good info thrown off by bogus support claims.

A Shill Of A Hun

To Carol from Missoula, Montana: Spoken like a true "Shill Of A Hun." You support everything that David said about his friend, a former employee of Russ Whitney. I take it that you've taken over his responsibilities of posting favorable comments for Russ Whitney's system. Isn't funny how most of the "Shills" always state that they have purchased 3 or for properties after just 3 - 5 days of attending Mr. Whitney's seminar. As a matter of fact, there was a report done about a few years ago regarding Mr. Whitney's $5,000 - $7,000 note purchasing course that stated that a LARGE percentage of Mr. Whitney's students failed. These students did everything that the course instructed them to do and then some. Even those students who were on Mr. Whitney's 30 minute informercial who claimed to make a substantial profit, actually barely made back the money they invested in the course.

To David from Cape Coral, Florida: I agree with you 100% about people posting positive feedback on rip-off scams. It is quite evident that they're paid shills in order to get more pigeons for the coop. It's a shame that people would falsify the success of a product, when in fact they know that product isn't worth the cost of air from the outdoors, just to get more people sucked in to a scam.

To Sande from Fort Meyers, Florida: Stopping the seminars sounds easier said than done. The best thing we could do for the general public is educate them of the scams that are out there and steer them to a site like The Rip-Off Report. You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make them drink. I've heard many stories of how people would hear that different programs were a scam, but they still went ahead and ordered the plan anyway, stating that: "Oh, Mr. So and So just didn't work hard enough with the plan." They went in with their eyes wide open and got ripped off. By the way, I almost ordered a plan from The Zaken Company, but I happened to do a general search on AOL and stumbled upon The Rip-Off Report and read all of the negative complaints of all that were ripped off by "Mr. Zaken" -- I owe many, many thanx to The Rip Off Report, because I would've been ripped off, had I not stumbled onto this site.

Russ Whitney Of Whitney Education Group, Inc. High pressure sales tactics. Seminars "we pay for" are actually infomercials. Keep you on the phone until you upgrade your package. Cape Coral Florida *Consumer Suggestion ..Russ Whitney is Being Sued

Russ Whitney

Address:

 Cape Coral Florida 33904
 U.S.A.
 Phone:

 Fax: -

I attended one of Russ Whitney's free seminars and got hyped up enough to sign up for a weekend seminar. That cost me $1590.00 for a weekend that was basically an "overview" of all the materials you receive when you pay for the weekend. (books,cd's)

I was overwhelmed and very disappointed after discovering that they only give you enough information to give you the impression that it is vitally important to take additional "bootcamps" in order to learn what is necessary to succeed.

I again, was sucked into this salespitch because I was hungry for this information. They only feed you enough so you'll want "the rest of it". The "rest of it" cost me another $6990.00.

I got home feeling sick to my stomach but convincing myself that when I go through their bootcamps, that I will have gotten enough information to make my money back.

Not long after the 3-day weekend, I received a call from Joe Gnazza. He evidently is in charge of upgrading the package you purchased to a higher level.

Joe kept me on the phone for 1 1/2-2 hours leading me to believe he was "interviewing" me to be one of their next successful "Hall of Famers"

He used very deliberate series of questions to find out how much credit you have available. At first, he asks in such a way to see how much debt you have and then asks what your credit limit is on each credit card.

I asked "several" times how much it was going to cost me for what they were trying to sell me in addition to what I had already purchased. I never got a straight answer. They have a second person that gets on the phone with you to further wear you down. He would just tell me that it was anywhere from $5,000-$20,000.

It wasn't until they tallied up my available credit left on my cards that they hit me with "their" amount that it was going to cost me.

I was "never" given a receipt or a right to recind offer. Needless to say, I was absolutely sick over this newly incurred debt.

The phone coach that was included in this newly upgraded package was the biggest waste of money and time. She would call once a week for 10 weeks. It again, was just an overview of what I had already read and listened to on the cd's. Most weeks she just repeated the same material from the previous week.

Whew! That couldn't have gone fast enough! I even complained to her about the cost and how high pressured the phone call was. She just responded saying, "Just think of it as a Masters degree"

I attended the Millionaire U down in Cape Coral, Fl. and it was so fast paced that most of us were overwhelmed. It was also because you not only pay for the "platinum package" but you also pay for a flight, hotel, rental car and meals.

You just keep thinking that by the next "bootcamp" I'll for sure know enough to get this $20,000 paid off. Not!!!

I attended one more bootcamp the end of April 2003. Most of the students were so mad that the instructors spent so much time trying to sell us on the "note" business than teaching us about Creative Financing.

Again, you figure how much money it takes to get to one of these bootcamps. A few of their employees admitted that Whitney Education knows the percentage that will sign up from the free seminar for the 3-day. And again, the percentages that will sign up for a package and from that the percentage that will actually spend the money to go the these bootcamps.

I have talked to several people about this and I have been encouraged to get ahold of the Attorney General of Florida. I have been told that because I never received a receipt or told I had the right to recind that I could dispute this.

I also feel very strongly that what I "thought" I was going to receive (value) of the information was a far cry from what I actually got so far.

Russ Whitney is Being Sued

Leilani, sorry to hear of your troubles with the Russ Whitney organization. I have attended his free seminars, and watched his infomercial on TV, but he always seemed a little too "slick" for my taste, so I never bought any of his dubious material.

There are many negative comments on Whitney posted on numerous sites on the internet. Just use any search engine and type in >Russ Whitney scam< and you'll see what I mean.

One specific site I recommend is www.johntreed.com You can read all the gory details of Whitney's legal problems, including his lawsuit against John Reed for posting negative information about him.

I encourage you to follow up and try to get your money back. Scammers like Whitney belong in the slammer!!

If anyone knows of strategies that have worked to allow us to get our money back on either the seminars or the Mortgage Reduction program we would appreciate it. Also if anyone knows if the State Attorney for Washingto can be of any help, please contact us. So many more at the seminar lost more than we did.

Stop the Russ Whitney Rip Off

I went to a free seminar given by Whitney and saw several people giving away lots of money to become realestate millionaires.

I'm thinking there should be a way for some organization, like ripoffreport, to contact all the attorney generals in each state to give them the heads up regarding dishonest business practices of guys like Russ Whitney.

Thanks for letting me say my two cents worth.

In today's society, you must be careful in any dealings with ANY person or persons claiming to have "the answer" to your financial woes.

You cannot take it for granted that ANYONE'S plan for their financial deliverance is the answer which will work for you.

You must remember that when you attend any of the free seminars designed to inform you of a way to "relieve your financial burdens", they already know that your mind is open to learning an "easier" way to make money. Therefore, you are opening the doors to these people, allowing them access to your soul.

STOP going to the seminars, cut down their audience, and these types of individuals will dissappear on their own. Without an audience, they are dead in the water.

this is not a get rich quick scheme!!

I get so tired of people looking to get rich quick and then when they find something that requires, which you are told about from the very beginning, hard work and lots of sweat they freak out and say it is a rip-off. i have been in the mortgage industry for over 15 years and this is JUST ANOTHER TOOL TO USE in your desire to be self-employed. they tell you if you work it you can make money, they also tell you if you DON'T work it you won't. GEE, WHAT A CONCEPT!!!

just using the knowledge i learned in the free seminar, i have found in two days of working the system 3 properties. all are motivated and we will bring in a net income of around 3-3,500 per month for the 3!! we figured to keep living at the same income we are at now we need to have 15 rentals bringing a net income of $731 per month per property. that does not include what we will make off of wholesale,etc. and this is only from the information from the first seminar!!

we bought a package deal which includes wholesale, foreclosures and manufactured homes. comes with the millionaire u and the mentoring program comes with it. sure it was a lot of money but this is a business and this is tax deductible for your business so what have you lost? sure they try and sell you more, but after all we are adults and it is OUR decision to say yes or no. but remember this, when you go to school to be a doctor you can't stop at an assoc. degree(2yrs) and say oh great now they want more schooling to be a Dr.think about it. way to much crying and whinning. maybe those that do are the ones who won't make it and then there will be more for us! what a wonderful thought!have a great day!! :-)

Whitney supporters or employees

I have a friend that is a former Whitney employee. His job was to surf the internet and post favorable information about Mr. Whitney's programs on sites that contain complaints about Mr. Whitney.

If you look at any site on which there is a rebuttal to a Whitney complaint the pro-whitney posters all use very similar scenarios. They all found 3-4 properties 3-5 days after attending his seminar and all will generate a profit of approx $1000 each. Many use the Dr. analogy and many use the "same phone number for the last 20 years line" and often call those making the report "whiners" or accuse them of "killing others dreams".

My friend had a "cue card" of information that he used the same info on every site. Interestingly he was told to post 75% of the time as a woman as it made the post "more empowering".

I think sites like this are great for consumers and don't like to see the good info thrown off by bogus support claims.

A Shill Of A Hun

To Carol from Missoula, Montana: Spoken like a true "Shill Of A Hun." You support everything that David said about his friend, a former employee of Russ Whitney. I take it that you've taken over his responsibilities of posting favorable comments for Russ Whitney's system. Isn't funny how most of the "Shills" always state that they have purchased 3 or for properties after just 3 - 5 days of attending Mr. Whitney's seminar. As a matter of fact, there was a report done about a few years ago regarding Mr. Whitney's $5,000 - $7,000 note purchasing course that stated that a LARGE percentage of Mr. Whitney's students failed. These students did everything that the course instructed them to do and then some. Even those students who were on Mr. Whitney's 30 minute informercial who claimed to make a substantial profit, actually barely made back the money they invested in the course.

To David from Cape Coral, Florida: I agree with you 100% about people posting positive feedback on rip-off scams. It is quite evident that they're paid shills in order to get more pigeons for the coop. It's a shame that people would falsify the success of a product, when in fact they know that product isn't worth the cost of air from the outdoors, just to get more people sucked in to a scam.

To Sande from Fort Meyers, Florida: Stopping the seminars sounds easier said than done. The best thing we could do for the general public is educate them of the scams that are out there and steer them to a site like The Rip-Off Report. You can lead a horse to water, but you can't make them drink. I've heard many stories of how people would hear that different programs were a scam, but they still went ahead and ordered the plan anyway, stating that: "Oh, Mr. So and So just didn't work hard enough with the plan." They went in with their eyes wide open and got ripped off. By the way, I almost ordered a plan from The Zaken Company, but I happened to do a general search on AOL and stumbled upon The Rip-Off Report and read all of the negative complaints of all that were ripped off by "Mr. Zaken" -- I owe many, many thanx to The Rip Off Report, because I would've been ripped off, had I not stumbled onto this site.

I attended one of Russ Whitney's free seminars and got hyped up enough to sign up for a weekend seminar. That cost me $1590.00 for a weekend that was basically an "overview" of all the materials you receive when you pay for the weekend. (books,cd's)

I was overwhelmed and very disappointed after discovering that they only gave you enough information to give you the impression that it is vitally important to take additional "bootcamps" in order to learn what is necessary to succeed.

I again, was sucked into this salespitch because I was hungry for this information. They only feed you enough so you'll want "the rest of it". The "rest of it" cost me another $6990.00.

I got home feeling sick to my stomach but convincing myself that when through their bootcamps, that I will have gotten enough information to get my money back.

Not long after the 3-day weekend, I received a call from Joe Gnazza. He evidently is in charge of upgrading the package you purchased to a high level.

Joe kept me on the phone for 1 1/2-2 hours leading me to believe he was "interviewing" me to be one of their next successful "Hall of Famers"

He used very deliberate series of questions to find out how much credit I have available. At first, he asks in such a way to see how much debt you have and then asks what your credit limit is on each credit card.

I asked "several" times how much it was going to cost me for what they were trying to sell me in addition to what I had already purchased. I never got a straight answer. They have a second person that gets on the phone with you to further wear you down. He would just tell me that it was anywhere from $5,000-$20,000.

It wasn't until they tallied up my available credit left on my cards that they told me with "their" amount that it was going to cost me.

I was "never" given a receipt or a right to rescind offer. Needless to say, I was absolutely sick over this newly incurred debt.

The phone coach that was included in this newly upgraded package was the biggest waste of money and time. She would call once a week for 10 weeks again, was just an overview of what I had already read and listened to on the cd's. Most weeks she just repeated the same material from the previous weeks.

Whew! That couldn't have gone fast enough! I even complained to her about the cost and how high pressured the phone call was. She just responded saying, "Just think of it as a Masters degree"

I attended the Millionaire U down in Cape Coral, FL and it was so fast paced that most of us were overwhelmed. It was also because you not only pay for the "platinum package" but you also pay for a flight, hotel, rental car and

You just keep thinking that by the next "bootcamp" I'll for sure know enough to get this $20,000 paid off. Not!!!

I attended one more bootcamp the end of April 2003. Most of the students were so mad that the instructors spent so much time trying to sell us on the business than teaching us about Creative Financing.

Again, you figure how much money it takes to get to one of these bootcamps. A few of their employees admitted that Whitney Education knows the percentage that will sign up from the free seminar for the 3-day. And again, the percentages that will sign up for a package and from that the percentage will actually spend the money to go to these bootcamps.

I have talked to several people about this and I have been encouraged to inform the Attorney General of Florida. I have been told that because I received a receipt or told I had the right to rescind that I could dispute that.

I also feel very strongly that what I "thought" I was going to receive (value) of the information was a far cry from what I actually got so far.

Russ Whitney is Being Sued

Leilani, sorry to hear of your troubles with the Russ Whitney organization. I have attended his free seminars, and watched his infomercial on TV, but he always seemed a little too "slick" for my taste, so I never bought any of his dubious material.

There are many negative comments on Whitney posted on numerous sites on the internet. Just use any search engine and type in >Russ Whitney scam< and you'll see what I mean.

One specific site I recommend is www.johntreed.com
You can read all the gory details of Whitney's legal problems, including his lawsuit against John Reed for posting negative information about him.

I encourage you to follow up and try to get your money back. Scammers like Whitney belong in the slammer!!

For the last week or so, I've been seeing spots on TV for a stock investment seminar called "teach me to trade" which is being held at three hotels in my area next week. I had considered attending one of the sessions, but first I wanted to find out a bit more about the outfit through online research. When I located their website through the search engine I used, I found out it was merged with Russ Whitney's Wealth Information Network (WIN). I have been familiar with the Rip-off Report for some time now, and remembered reading a few negative write-ups on Russ Whitney, so I saw this as a red flag.

I then reviewed a couple of the Russ Whitney write-ups on this site, and found that his company seems to go around the country milking people for all they're worth through high-pressure real estate seminars. I have reason to believe similar tactics would be used in the "teach me to trade" program, and therefore have decided not to attend. If you're considering attending this seminar, I have one word for you - DON'T!

Thank you Rip-off Report for steering me away from a potential disaster.

Teach Me To Trade Seminar

I have attended a Teach Me To Trade Seminar. The seminar is extremely informative and the information one is presented with is accurate and up-to-date. Of course, if you want to learn how to trade securities successfully using Teach Me To Trade and also plan on attending the corresponding 3-day workshop, then you should also be prepared to spend quite a bit of money.

I have meet with stock brokers who informed me they spent much more money on other systems of stock investing, and what they learned with Teach Me To Trade doesn't even begin to compare with them. Will one be able to make $5,000 a day, or over $10,000 in a two week period using Teach Me To Trade?

If your a new-comer to stock trading with limited resouces to invest in the market, then you would be wise to question these amounts, but if you already have a previous background in trading securities then these amounts are not unreasonable.

One should consider the money they spend on Teach Me To Trade as money you would invest with any other type of professional education. I can honestly say without that education I would never have gained the confidence to trade securites on my own. You will never lose your money becoming educated. It has been said, one pays for their ignorance but not for their education. Teach Me To Trade is truly a "one-of-a-kind" educational trading system.

Russ Whitney took $15000+ from me. This was for a software program, 3-day seminar in florida, and a mentoring program, 2-day seminar in calgary. I did not receive or haven't received my software and my mentoring was cancelled as russ fired pmi and I was left with nothing, and after many long letters and documents has refused me a refund. Russ Whitney should be in jail for both scamming people and for taking their money and not delivering the products from which you the customer have paid for. I paid last may 2001 and am still fighting for my money, which I've been told will not be refunded unless I sign this statement. 3,112.01 will be refunded if: I agree by my signature that as described above and acknowledge that Whitney Education Group Inc. has handled this matter to my complete satisfaction. Furthermore, I shall keep the existence and terms of this refund settlement agreement strictly confidential. Well you might have guessed that I refuse to sign this letter as $15000 was the amount that I put in and getting only 3112.01 back when I never received their software, mentoring, or 3-day seminar. Is completely sad. I joined this program with great expectations and hopes and was left with nothing.

On Thursday, February 28th, I was involuntarily separated from my position at the Rocky Flats Environmental Technology Site (RFETS) in Arvada, Colorado.

Soon after, I saw an infomercial on TV, claiming that I could be wealthy, beyond my wildest dreams if I would attend a free seminar at the Adams Mark hotel in Denver, Colorado.

At this first secession, a very talented presenter by the name of Rodney pontificated for several hours, relating success stories about how practitioners of these advanced techniques could produce untold wealth using real estate investment tools.

After the presentation was completed, we were then informed, to discover the "true secrets" of real estate investing, we would have to purchase an additional educational package for $1580 where we, the students, would receive the secrets of wealth accumulation. I purchased and attended this seminar, fully expecting to be taught the secrets of real estate investing that Rodney had so vividly proclaimed in the previous secession.

Instead, what we got was just another three day tickler secession where these concepts were briefly over-viewed but were told if we really wanted to learn the trade and become millionaires, the students would have to purchase an entire series of boot-camps located across the nation.

Mr. John Gilmore, the boot-camp facilitator at the Denver, Colorado location in April of this year did an exceptional job of convincing the audience to invest anywhere from $6,900 to $32,890 for their program(s). His presentation was so effective and convincing that he actually encouraged the participants to use (max-out) every credit-card they owned, borrow money and / or use every means available to purchase this line of product(s).

I fell for this as did many others that day. Today, I am indebted to a tune of approximately $12,500 for a series of semi-related tapes, boot-camps and real estate software package(s) which are at best, only marginally to totally useless and ineffective.

The Real Estate software package which was proclaimed by Mr. Gilmore to be valued at $1995 is absolutely worthless. While attending the WholeSale Buying class in Fort Worth, Texas and the Real Estate Foreclosure class in Atlanta, Georgia, class facilitator (s), Todd Dotson and Tony Youngs urged students to ignore that software package and use the extensively abbreviated form(s) that were provided in their class-specific student work packages (see attachments). This drew immediate questions from several students as to why they were so vigorously encouraged to purchase this costly package and their response was "that's why Russ Whitney gets paid the Big Bucks".
Outrageous

The Whitney organization is a high pressure sales team that sells numerous real estate "boot-camps" to potential real estate investors across the country. Their organization is extremely effective in marketing this program to unemployed, underemployed or doleful, displaced persons desperately looking for a get-rich quick scheme in the real estate market.

Out of pocket, I spent three (3) hours with a real estate attorney in Lakewood, CO, in an attempt to incorporate Russ's foreclosure techniques into the laws, as they currently exist in Colorado. The conclusion we came to was that these techniques were unworkable in Colorado, and to be successful, extensive modification to Russ's course (s) would be required, not to mention, a tremendous amount of cash.

In this age of corporate fraud and scandal, the fact that the Whitney International organization prays upon persons who may be in an precarious financial situation with visions of instant wealth and financial freedom appears disingenuous and dispiriting.

I have attached a list of students who attended the WholeSale Buying Camp in the Dallas-Fort Worth area this past summer. I have attempted to correspond to each of these persons and inquire regarding their success as a result of the seminar. Every person who choose to respond indicated this effort was at best, a marginal failure to a total waste of time and money.

All materials, tapes, study guides and software packages have been returned to the Whitney organization.

I attended a Russ Whitney "FREE" Seminar for Real Estate Investment Opportunities. This whole seminar was a "Set-Up" of Bait & Switch. The Operatives of this Scheme to Deceive are Very Good at what they do. This is a Very Organized Scam Operation. Probably the FBI is the Authority to get Involved. It's just a Matter of Finding the Exact Laws that They are Breaking and Finding the Right Legal Entity to Pursue Prosecution. I for one will be more Aggressive in this Pursuit.

I have Paid on an Item that I have never Benefitted from Just To Save My Credit, but This Company Also Attempts to "Steal" and Intimidate those who Pay as per Agreement. I was sent a Notice that a direct payment from my bank was denied and then they charged me Outrageous Late Fees, Processing Fees, etc. I talked to my bank and was told that no direct debits are ever denied. The first time that Leasecomm pulled that stunt, they must have took me for over $100 and put 2 lates on my Credit Report (which is why I am so upset, the Original Rip-Off is almost Paid-Off, so I am basically over that loss of $59.00 a month, I chalk that off to bad experience and a never again philosophy on "Free" seminars, etc.), Leasecomm tried to pull the "PAYMENT DENIED BY BANK" again and this time, I called them up and told them point blank that they are lying and that I am in the Mortgage Industry and that I see on the Credit Reports of my clients how they rip people off and that I would pursue legal counsel if necessary.

They actually backed off and I did a Visa payment over the phone, so as not to take a chance of late payment on my Credit Report. They seem to prefer Credit Card debits for some odd reason?!!

I am going to talk to the Local DA here in my town, He is Very Aggressive and has gone after a couple big companies and Won. Think Positive. It would be great if somehow we were refunded all or at least part of our monies! :)

Good Luck to Everyone and I am Sorry for All of Us that this can happen in the USA. God Bless.

Under misleading information & extremely high-pressure, signed 4 yr. lease contract w/E-Commerce Exchange of Irvine, Ca. at Russ Whitney Real Estate seminar.

Sign it now-you have 3 days to cancel-we have to get out of here as it is late-we will send you filled in contract copy.

3 weeks later the filled in copy arrived with totally unusable equipment which I sent back and was resent equip. that was supposed to work but never got chance to use as program the lease was going to be used for was bogus; switched lease to Dot-Com Solutions, Sandy, Ut. also represented by E-Commerce Exchange of Irvine.

When huge problems surfaced with Dot-Com (more misleading seminar info) and was rudely treated when attempting to activate lease equipment I cancelled the lease, (after 5 mos. of not using it) sent unboxed equipment and letter of cancellation back to E-

Commerce Exchange.

Never heard back from ECX despite repeated attempts to contact them.

Leasecomm then began campaign of threatening letters and phone calls and eventually threatened to sue me which 2 CA. attorneys told me was illegal as it was a Ca. matter.

They sued in Ma. courts and obtained judgment against me which is on my credit report.

I have ignored them after receiving nothing but threats to my registered/return receipt letters in attempts to clear the matter up; the contract stipulates that they had to provide working, installed equip. for the contract to remain valid-something that never happened.

Now they tell me they are going to send the matter to a Ca. attorney to proceed-to which I said "good-then I will have a chance to have the truth come out"

At this point they asked me why I had not contacted them or the Ma. courts (I have a file 2" thick with proof that I did) and why I did not file a fraud affidavit (a new federal law) against them?

Leasecomm is attempting to paint themselves as an innocent bystander who got ripped off by ECX as they paid them for the 4 year lease.

So I am supposed to be the one who comes up with the money and ECX and Leasecomm get off free. What a racket!!!!

Consumer advocates from State Att. Gens to DAs of the counties these companies are in to the FTC in DC and the governors of these states have been absolutely no help.

So who is out there to protect the consumer?

Russ Whitney runs a program to steal money for "training sessions" which are high pressure sessions in which each person is taken out of the class one at a time and not let back in until they have agreed to sign up for more training running from $6,000-over $30,000.

If you can't afford it, they would finance it through a finance co. they work with.

Dot-Com Solutions promises one thing and when you try to build a web page you find out that it can't be done as they presented it; involves many times upgrading computer and internet access; and just when you are totally frustrated a telephone call comes from their "mentoring dept" which is an extremely high pressure call to get you to fork out another $8000 for their mentoring program which will assure you you will be successful. They also totally ignore calls & letters.

Their companion co., Independent Mktg., does reply with cutesy letters and no help at getting your money back.

All three of these companies are in bed with ECX of Irvine, Ca.; all 3 use fraudulent, high pressure methods to get you to sign up; all 3 make promises they can't keep, but they sure can keep your money.

Russ Whitney agreed (after having a "special" meeting) that they would return my initial investment as I felt that I had been misled, but only under the condition I return the training materials and TELL NO ONE about it. They have hedged because they are claiming they never received the materials back, despite my FedEx airbill, and FedEx is claiming they can't trace it. More hanky panky.

Dot-Com supposedly is no longer in business but Indep. Mktg. has taken over the mentoring, etc. and they are simply refusing to acknowledge my requests for my $4650 (plus 2 year interest on my credit card and purchase of web sites which I returned to them, which comes to almost $10,000 at this point), and referred me to another company who promptly answered me with the information that they never had any dealings with Dot-Com or Ind. Mktg.

Is anyone taking control of this and working on a class action suit against Leasecomm, ECX, Russ Whitney, Dot-Com, and Ind. Mktg?

If not, why not? Who is out there to get justice for these sleazy rip off con artists?

How can people like me, a 64 yr. old single woman who has no job, no assets, and no money and is considering filing bankruptcy to relieve myself of my credit card debt I ran up the past 3 years while attempting to find a job and get these home based businesses going, get their money back?
