DEFENDANTS' POST-AUCTION CONDUCT

- 25. As to the allegations in Paragraph 25 of the Complaint, Defendant admits that he filed with Barrett-Jackson both the Grievance Report and the Grievance Report Letter. Defendant denies that the Grievance Report Letter was attached to the Grievance Report. Defendant affirmatively alleges that he filed the Grievance Report with Barrett-Jackson immediately following the purported sale of the Car to Kazamek. Defendant affirmatively alleges that he filed the Grievance Report Letter later the day of January 20, 2007, when Barrett-Jackson had not responded to the Grievance Report. Defendant also affirmatively alleges that Ron Corbett, a bidder on the Car, signed the Grievance Report too because he too protested the sale.
 - 26. Defendant denies the allegations of Paragraph 26 of the Complaint.
- 27. As to the allegations in Paragraph 27 of the Complaint, Defendant states that the Grievance Report and Grievance Report Letter speak for themselves. Defendant denies having provided the Grievance Report and Grievance Report Letter to Kazamek. Defendant affirmatively alleges that he verbally notified Kazamek on the afternoon of January 20, 2007, that he had lodged a protest with Barrett-Jackson.

27

- 28. Defendant admits the allegation in Paragraph 28 of the Complaint that Plaintiffs had an obligation to store the Car safely. Defendant denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 28 of the Complaint.
- 29. Defendant admits the allegation in Paragraph 29 of the Complaint that the Car is a high-profile car. Defendant denies that Barrett-Jackson placed the Car in the Showcase Pavilion after the purported sale. Defendant affirmatively alleges that Barrett-Jackson had left the Car outside following the purported sale, and that the Defendant pushed it inside the Showcase Pavilion tent the evening of January 20, 2007 to help protect the Car against the elements. Defendant lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the remaining allegations in Paragraph 29 of the Complaint, and therefore denies the same.
- 30. Defendant lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 30 of the Complaint, and therefore denies the same.
 - 31. Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 31 of the Complaint.
- 32. In response to Paragraph 32 of the Complaint, Defendant admits that he placed a chain around the Car. Defendant also affirmatively alleges that he only did so after Barrett-Jackson Auction Company breached their contract and had otherwise failed to take proper actions after the improper sale of the Car, and after Plaintiffs refused to meet with Defendant regarding that sale despite earlier promises to do so. Defendant denies the remaining allegations of Paragraph 32.
- 33. In response to Paragraph 33 of the Complaint, Defendant admits that he placed a chain around the Car. Defendant also affirmatively alleges that he only did so after Barrett-Jackson Auction Company breached their contract and had otherwise failed to take proper actions after the improper sale of the Car, and after Plaintiffs refused to meet with Defendant regarding that sale despite earlier promises to do so. Defendant denies the remaining allegations of Paragraph 33.

- 34. In response to Paragraph 34 of the Complaint, Defendant admits he taped one copy of the Grievance Report Letter to the inside window of the Car on January 20, 2007. Defendant affirmatively alleges that only the first page of the Grievance Report Letter was visible to persons outside the Car. Defendant further admits that on January 21, 2007 he taped Exhibit 3 of the Complaint to the Car. Defendant affirmatively alleges that he taped Exhibit 3 to the Car only after Plaintiffs failed to honor promises to address the original and supplemental grievance reports. Defendant denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 34.
 - 35. Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 35 of the Complaint.
- 36. Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 36 of the Complaint. Defendant further states that the January 21, 2007 poster speaks for itself.
- 37. As to the allegations in Paragraph 37 of the Complaint, Defendant states that the January 21, 2007 poster speaks for itself.
- 38. Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 38 of the Complaint. Defendant further states that the January 21, 2007 poster speaks for itself.
- 39. Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 39 of the Complaint. Defendant further states that the January 21, 2007 poster speaks for itself.
 - 40. Defendant admits the allegations in Paragraph 40 of the Complaint.
- 41. Defendant lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in Paragraph 41 of the Complaint, and therefore denies the same.
 - 42. Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 42 of the Complaint.
 - 43. Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 43 of the Complaint.
- 44. Defendant denies the allegation in Paragraph 44 of the Complaint that he provided false statements to Sam Barer. As to the remaining allegations in Paragraph 44 of the Complaint, Defendant lacks knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations and therefore denies the same.
 - 45. Defendant denies the allegations in Paragraph 45 of the Complaint.

- 46. Defendant admits the allegation in Paragraph 46 of the Complaint that he sent the letter attached as Exhibit 4 to the Complaint. Defendant denies the remaining allegations in Paragraph 46 of the Complaint.
 - 47. Defendant admits the allegations of Paragraph 47 of the Complaint.
