1	AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES
2	FIRST DEFENSE
3	(Failure to State a Cause of Action)
4	Plaintiffs have failed to state a cause of action and this Defendant is entitled
5	to a Judgment as a matter of law.
6	SECOND DEFENSE (Failure to State a Claim)
7	Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted and
8	this Defendant is entitled to a judgment of No Cause of Action as a matter of law.
9	THIRD DEFENSE
10	(First Amendment)
11	This Defendant relies upon the First Amendment to the United States
12	Constitution guaranteeing freedom of speech, and therefore this Defendant is entitled to a
13	judgment as a matter of law.
14	FOURTH DEFENSE
15	(Truth of the Matter Stated)
16	This Defendant relies upon the concept that "truth of the matter stated" as a
17	defense the allegation set forth in the complaint.
18	FIFTH DEFENSE
	(New York Times v Sullivan)
19	This Defendant relies upon the concepts and law set forth in New York
20	Times Co. v. Sullivan, 376 U.S. 254, 84 S.Ct. 710, 11 L.Ed.2d 666 (1964), and made a

SIXTH DEFENSE

(No Publication)

This Defendant, nor any persons on its behalf, with authority, published any statements, as alleged in the Complaint.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

(No Republication)

As this Defendant never published any allegations, it specifically denies any republications as claimed in the Complaint.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

(Breach of Good Faith and Fair Dealing)

Barrett-Jackson is guilty of a breach of good faith and fair dealing as to its conduct relative to the contract between Barrett-Jackson and this Defendant.

NINTH DEFENSE

(Failure to Disclose)

Barrett-Jackson and its representatives, agents and employees failed to disclose to this Defendant and/or others that it had conducted an internal estimate/valuation of the value of the motor vehicle identified in the Consignment Agreement dated December 5, 2006 between Thumbco, Michigan Nominee Partnership, and Barrett-Jackson and such failure was a breach of contract, a breach of an implied contract of good faith and fair dealings and would have provided this Defendant with the opportunity to withdraw the motor vehicle before the auction of January 2007.

TENTH DEFENSE

(Alleged Acts of David Claubuesch not Imputed or Binding on this Defendant)

Barrett-Jackson specifically knew, or should have known, that the contract attached to the Complaint as Exhibit 1 was exclusively between Thumbco, and Barrett-Jackson and that David Claubuesch was not a party to the contract and had no authority to act in regard to such a contract. In fact, David Claubuesch specifically represented that correspondence was to be directed to him at 9923 Sunset, Sand Point, Michigan, his personal home and he provided his business card, on at least two documents, representing "RAMCHARGERS®" David L. Claubuesch, 9923 Sunset, Sand Point, Michigan, 48755 E-MAIL: david@ramchargers.com., and therefore this Defendant is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

(Claubuesch not Acting as Agent for Thumbco)

Barrett-Jackson knew, or should have known, that David L. Claubuesch had not authority to act as a representative and/or agent of Defendant Thumbco, based upon the Consignment Agreement dated December 5, 2006, the signature contained on the Grievance Report of January 20, 2007, the handwritten letter of January 20, 2007, directed to "Barrett-Jackson" and the business card presented by David L. Claubuesch. Therefore this Defendant is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.

TWELFTH DEFENSE (Consignment Agreement December 5, 2006)

The Consignment Agreement of December 5, 2006, is exclusively between Barrett-Jackson and Thumbco, signed by trust officer, Ben Schott. No other persons and or entities signed on behalf of or were authorized to act on behalf of Thumbco, and specifically, David L. Claubuesch was not identified as a person with authority to so act and his actions were solely those in his individual capacity.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE (Barrett-Jackson Acts of Publication)

Barrett-Jackson chose to display the motor vehicle in an area accessible to the public and by doing so was instrumental in the "publication" of any documents so referenced in its Complaint and by continuing to allow any documents "posted" on the motor vehicle and allowing the motor vehicle to remain visible to the public, Barrett-Jackson is responsible for such publication and the same cannot be attributed to third

1	parties.
2	FOURTEENTH DEFENSE
3	(Demand for Retraction)
4	Barrett-Jackson failed to demand a retraction of the alleged defamatory
5	material thereby continuing its contribution to its alleged losses.
6	FIFTEENTH DEFENSE (Accord and Satisfaction)
7	Barrett-Jackson, by issuing its corporate check dated February 16, 2007 to
8	Thumbco, and by the check being negotiated by Thumbco, and Barrett-Jackson having
9	issued a valid certificate of title to the purchaser, the parties have reached accord and
10	satisfaction and this Defendant is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law.
11	SIXTEENTH DEFENSE
12	(Mitigation of Damages)
13	Plaintiffs have failed to mitigate their damages.
14	SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE (No Right to Rely)
15	Barrett-Jackson had no right to rely upon any representation made by any
16	third party to the Consignment Agreement dated December 5, 2006 between Barrett-
17	Jackson and Thumbco, as to any representations allegedly made on behalf of Thumbco.
18	EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE
19	(Reservation of Rights)
20	Discovery has not yet begun in this matter and new or additional affirmative
21	defenses may be discovered. Defendant Thumbco reserves right to amend this answer to
22	include any affirmative defenses set forth in Rules 8 and 12 of the Arizona Rules of Civil
23	Procedure or A. R. S. § 12-561, if any become applicable during the course of discovery.
26

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

(Punitive Damages Improper)

Thumbco asserts that the imposition of punitive damages under Arizona law violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, as well as the Contract Clause, in each of the following ways.

- (a) Arizona law permits the imposition of unlimited punitive damages that are vastly disproportionate to any actual or compensatory injuries, thereby violating the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.
- (b) Disproportionate punitive damages constitute an arbitrary and capricious taking of property which is unjustified by any rational governmental interest, thereby violating the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.
- (c) The award of any punitive damages without certain safeguards to guard the jury's discretion in determining the amount of damages is contrary to due process under the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.
- (d) Arizona does not provide a reasonable limit on the amount of any punitive damage award, thus violating the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.
- (e) The substantive standards of liability under which punitive damages are sought in this case are ambiguous, subjective and not reasonably ascertainable, and are thus void for vagueness under the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.
- (f) Arizona law permits civil punishment upon a standard of proof less than is required for the imposition of criminal sanctions.
- (g) Arizona law permits joint and several punishment of defendants who are guilty of different acts and degrees of culpability.
  - (h) Arizona law permits multiple awards of punitive damages for the

1	single alleged act or omission.
2	WHEREFORE, Defendant Thumbco request that the Court grant a
3	Judgment in its favor of No Cause for Action in this matter so wrongfully brought, that
4	Plaintiffs take nothing thereby and that this Answering Defendant be awarded its costs
5	and attorneys' fees incurred herein.
