AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

First Affirmative Defense
Failure to State a Claim

- 1. Plaintiff’s Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted against Defendants.

Second Affirmative Defense
Waiver

- 2. Plaintiff’s claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of waiver.

Third Affirmative Defense
Truth

- 3. Defendants affirmatively assert that all statements and comments by Defendants were true and thus cannot be the basis for a defamation action.

Fourth Affirmative Defense
Litigation Privilege

- 4. The matters addressed by Defendants in their lawsuit against Plaintiff are subject to the litigation privilege, which is an absolute privilege.

Fifth Affirmative Defense
SLAPP Suit Violation

5. The action brought by Plaintiff is a SLAPP suit prohibited by the Minnesota Anti-SLAPP statute, Minn. Stat. 554.

Sixth Affirmative Defense
Lack of Damage Caused By Defendants

6. No act or omission on the part of Defendants either caused or contributed to whatever injury (if any) Plaintiff may have suffered.

Seventh Affirmative Defense
Failure to Mitigate Damages

7. Plaintiff has failed to properly mitigate its damages.

Eighth Affirmative Defense
Substantial Truth

8. Plaintiff's claims are barred under the substantial truth doctrine.

Ninth Affirmative Defense
No Provable False Assertions of Fact

9. The Defendants' statements are not properly subject to a slander suit because they contained no provably false assertions of fact.

Tenth Affirmative Defense
Unclean Hands

10. Plaintiff is involved in copyright litigation in numerous jurisdictions nationwide on behalf of plaintiffs AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity 13, LLC. In these cases, Plaintiff has filed or caused to be filed documents identifying "Alan Cooper" as CEO of AF Holdings and Ingenuity 13. Defendant Cooper denies having ever been CEO of either entity, and denies signing any documents, and specifically any copyright assignment documents, on behalf of them. Defendant Cooper filed suit against Plaintiff, Paul Duffy, John Steele and Paul Hansmeier for misappropriating his identity. See Minnesota Complaint. This case was filed in response to Defendant Cooper's lawsuit against Plaintiff in Minnesota.

COUNTERCLAIMS

FACTS

1. Plaintiff had been hired in 2006 as a caretaker for a property Steele owns in Aitkin County.
2. Plaintiff was allowed to stay in a guest house on the property and helped with remodeling and general maintenance of the property.
3. While visiting his property, Steele had on several occasions discussed his plans and early successes in carrying out a massive, nationwide copyright enforcement litigation strategy.
4. Steele had also told Plaintiff that if anyone asked about any companies, that Plaintiff was not to answer and to call Steele directly.
5. Plaintiff confronted Steele, but was unable to determine what companies Steele was talking about.
6. Steele has in fact sued tens of thousands of individuals for copyright infringement nationwide.
7. Plaintiff has not participated in any part of Steele's litigation activities.
8. Steele and his law firm, Steele Hansmeier, PLLC, now known as Prenda Law, Inc. have gained significant attention due to the scope of their litigation.
9. Steele claims that he is merely "of counsel" with Prenda Law, Inc., but in fact controls operations at Prenda Law, Inc.
10. Sometime in November 2012, Plaintiff was informed that his name was being used as an officer or director of AF Holdings, LLC, a client of Prenda Law, Inc.
11. In various lawsuits filed in the past year, AF Holdings, LLC through its counsel has filed copies of copyright assignment agreements that bear the signature of an "Alan Cooper" signing on behalf of AF Holdings, LLC.
12. A copy of one such assignment is attached as Exhibit A to this Complaint.
13. The signature of "Alan Cooper" in Exhibit A was not made by Plaintiff.
14. On at least one occasion, an "Alan Cooper" has acted as the manager of another client of Prenda Law, Ingenuity13, LLC.
15. A copy of one such document is attached as Exhibit B to this Complaint.
16. Again, Plaintiff did not sign the document shown as Exhibit B.
17. As described above, Steele and Plaintiff entered into an agreement for Cooper to care for

- Steele's property, a copy of that agreement is attached as Exhibit C.
18. Steele and the other Defendants used the signature in Exhibit C or another of Plaintiff's signatures as the model for creating the signature that appears on Exhibit A.
 19. AF Holdings, LLC has filed over 200 copyright lawsuits in federal district courts across the nation within the past year.
 20. Ingenuity13, LLC has filed over 50 copyright lawsuits in federal district courts across the nation within the past year.
 21. All Defendants knew that Plaintiff's name was being used, without Plaintiff's knowledge, as an officer, director, or shareholder of AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC.
 22. All Defendants intended to use Alan Cooper's name for their own benefit on AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC documents.
 23. All Defendants have in fact benefited from using Plaintiff's name for their own benefit on AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC documents.
 24. Defendants knew that Alan Cooper had not authorized the use of his name or signature on AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC documents.
 25. Both Steele and Prenda Law, Inc. participated in the creation of AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC.
 26. Defendants Steele and Prenda Law have actual control of Defendants AF Holdings LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC.
 27. AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC exist solely as instruments of Steele and Prenda Law, Inc.
 28. Both Steele and Prenda Law, Inc. chose to organize AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC in the nation of St. Kitts & Nevis because of the strict corporate privacy laws in that country.
 29. Plaintiff's counsel made several attempts to contact Defendants about the use of the name "Alan Cooper" in lawsuits by AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC.
 30. Defendant Steele, when he heard that Prenda Law, Inc. had been contacted by Plaintiff's counsel did not respond to Plaintiff's counsel but rather called Plaintiff several times within a matter of minutes.
 31. Despite repeated requests by Plaintiff's counsel, Defendants have not offered any explanation as to why Alan Cooper's name appears on documents relating to lawsuits filed by AF

Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC.

32. Plaintiff through his counsel filed the letter attached as Exhibit D in cases filed by AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC in the District of Minnesota.
33. Defendants have claimed that the letter is “false” but have never attempted to explain what in particular about the allegations contained within that letter are false.
34. Defendants have never identified another person by the name of Alan Cooper who could plausibly have signed the documents shown as Exhibit A or Exhibit B.

COUNT I

DECLARATORY JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO MINNESOTA ANTI-SLAPP IMMUNITY

35. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the above as if fully set forth below.
36. In November 2012, Cooper retained Atty. Godfread for purposes of confirming that it was a different Alan Cooper who was the CEO of AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC, and not him.
37. Defendants refused to discuss the matter with Cooper or the courts, as illustrated by the proceedings in Ingenuity13, LLC v. John Doe, No. 12-cv-8333 (C.D. Cal. 2012). See, Exhibit E.
38. Cooper had no choice but to file suit. The action commenced on January 25, 2013. See, Exhibit F.
39. Despite knowing Cooper was represented by Atty. Godfread, Defendant’s co-conspirator, John Steele directly contacted Cooper several times via text messaging and various voicemails, including the following voicemail:
 - 39.1. “I can assure you that just ignoring legal matters, it’s not going to go away. So I highly recommend you, at least, you know, follow the rules of Minnesota, Illinois, Florida and some other states’ soon civil procedure because, otherwise, your life is going to get real complicated. And I’m saying this as a friend, as well as opposing counsel.”
40. Defendant and his co-conspirators made similar threats to Godfread via phone calls and emails, including the following email sent from Paul Hansmeier on February 21, 2013:
 - 40.1. “Dear Mr. Godfread:
My firm has been retained by Livewire Holdings LLC to pursue claims in the U.S. District Court for the District of Minnesota against you and your co-conspirators arising from defamation, civil conspiracy and related acts. The alleged acts occurred in e-mail communications and blog posts describing my client as a criminal enterprise. As you know, such statements constitute defamation per se and are, quite frankly, wildly inappropriate. Less-egregious claims have resulted in multi-million dollar judgments, as I trust this one will. The facts of the underlying case are essentially a law school exam hypothetical of every possible variation of libel. Perhaps you can forward my client's complaint to your former professors at William Mitchell. My client is well-aware that you are a major contributor to these blog sites.

The purpose of this e-mail is to inform you of impending litigation so that you preserve all relevant evidence in your possession including, but not limited to, communications between yourself and David Camaratto, Morgan Pietz, Nicholas Ranallo and any other individuals associated directly or indirectly with the sites fightcopyrighttrolls and dietrolldie. Further, any and all other evidence that might be relevant to this matter must, of course, be preserved.

I suspect that you aligned yourself with these defamatory efforts as a marketing strategy. I don't know if these efforts paid off, but I can assure you that making baseless accusations of criminal conduct is not a wise move for a licensed attorney. All of that being said, my client knows that you didn't work alone in these wrongful efforts. If you think we are missing out on more serious actors in your enterprise my client would be willing to consider decreasing your liability in exchange for information about these individuals. Of course, that interest will disappear if someone else comes forward first. Think it over and let me know. If you're willing to take the fall for whole group then you are decidedly a "true believer."

Welcome to the big leagues.

Paul”

41. Paul Hansmeier, is the owner of Alpha Law and co-plaintiff of Prenda Law in a related matter identified below at 43.2.
42. Livewire Holdings, LLC purportedly bought AF Holdings, LLC and Ingenuity13, LLC.
43. Eighteen days after the Cooper filed his complaint, Defendant and his co-conspirators filed three state court claims against the Plaintiffs for defamation, including the one before this Court. They include:
 - 43.1. Paul Duffy v. Paul Godfread, Alan Cooper & John Does 1-10, No. 13-L-001656, (Cir. Court, Cook Cty.) (filed Feb. 15, 2013). Defendants removed this action to the Northern District of Illinois on Feb. 28, 2013, No. 13-cv-1569. See, Exhibit G.
 - 43.2. Prenda Law v. Paul Godfread, Alan Cooper & John Does 1-10, No. 13-L-001656, (20th Cir. Court, St. Clair Cty.) (filed Feb. 12, 2013). Defendants removed this action to the Southern District of Illinois on March 1, 2013, No. 13-cv-00207. See, Exhibit H.
 - 43.3. John Steele v. Paul Godfread, Alan Cooper & John Does 1-10, No.13-6680 CA 4, (11th Cir., Miami-Dade Cty.) (filed Feb. 25, 2013). Defendants removed this action to the Southern District of Florida on March 1, 2013, No. 13-cv-20744. Steele voluntarily dismissed his action March 6, 2013. See, Exhibit I.
44. When Defendant and his co-conspirators filed their respective state court actions, their goal was not to win on the merits but rather to
 - 44.1. Force Plaintiffs to expend funds on litigation costs and attorney fees in multiple state court proceedings;
 - 44.2. Discourage opposition in Plaintiffs' Minnesota action through delay, expense, and distraction;
 - 44.3. Improperly seek discovery of third parties; and
 - 44.4. Serve a vexatious or otherwise retaliatory purpose for the Plaintiffs' filing of the Cooper action.
45. Minnesota's anti-SLAPP statute, Minn. Stat. §554.01-.05, was designed to prohibit lawsuits against parties engaged in public participation seeking favorable government action.
46. A review of Defendant's complaint confirms that Plaintiffs' conduct was genuinely aimed at procuring favorable government action.

47. The only instance of defamation Defendant or his co-conspirators specifically identify as attributable to the Plaintiffs is the “allegations in a complaint filed in the District Court for the Fourth Judicial District of Minnesota.” Duffy, Prenda and Steele Complaints at ¶¶ 6-7.
48. No other defamatory statements are specifically alleged as coming from Godfread or Cooper.
49. Plaintiffs have shown that their complaint was aimed at procuring favorable action from the courts and done in accordance with Minnesota civil procedure.
50. Defendant’s remaining claims are likewise barred by §554.01-.05 as they all arise as a consequence of Plaintiffs’ purported defamatory statements made in their complaint.
51. Defendant cannot reach the clear and convincing standard, under any theory of law, required by §554 regarding his allegations.

COUNT II
INVASION OF PRIVACY – APPROPRIATION

52. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the above as if fully set forth below.
53. Defendants have appropriated Plaintiff’s name for their own benefit.
54. Defendants did not have Plaintiff’s permission to use his name to sign documents on behalf of AF Holdings, LLC or Ingenuity13, LLC
55. Defendants knew that they did not have Plaintiff’s permission to use his name to sign documents on behalf of AF Holdings, LLC or Ingenuity13, LLC
