UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON
Portland Division

OBSIDIAN FINANCE GROUP, LLC and
KEVIN D. PADRICK,

Civil No. CV 11-0057 HA

Plaintiffs,
V.

Objection to Plaintiff's MOTION FOR
PARTIAL SUMMARY

CRYSTAL L. COX,
Defendant.

The Undersigned Defendant, Crystal L. Cox, Pro Se, Certifies that David Aman did call to attempt to resolve the issues, however David Aman requested Defendant give up valuable intellectual property with no compensation and David Aman, counsel of record for plaintiffs Obsidian Finance Group, LLC and Kevin D. Padrick ("Plaintiffs") asked that Defendant admit to Liability of which defendant is NOT liable for. This Settlement "conference" was not really in "good faith" as it was not fair, equal, ethical or based in law. The Proposed Settlement was in no way acceptable to defendant Crystal L. Cox.

Defendant Crystal L. Cox hereby certifies that she made a good faith effort to resolve the issues raised in this Motion by telephone conference with plaintiff by way of a "win win" and the proposal David Aman made will hurt the career of Defendant Crystal L. Cox and is not reasonable.

Further Noted, and as a Matter Of Record, Note eMail records. Defendant, Crystal L. Cox emailed David Aman, Attorney of Record for Obsidian Finance Group, LLC and Kevin D. Padrick (Plaintiff) in rejection of the Settlement Communication, the "Offer to Settle", at 9:59 PM Mountain Standard Time on April 27th 2011. At this time I also emailed a copy to the Oregon Courts at email address michelle\_rawson@ord.uscourts.gov . David Aman, Attorney for Plaintiff emailed a Copy of request for partial summary judgement at 4:38 PM Mountain Time, claiming that Defendant, Crystal L. Cox was not cooperative in his "Good Faith" attempt to settle the matter. It was certainly NOT in good faith to claim this to a Federal Court BEFORE I had responded as to whether I would agree to the emailed Settlement Communication.

I object to an order granting a partial summary judgement in favor of plaintiff on the issue of liability on the defamation claim in Plaintiffs' Complaint.

DATED this 2nd day of May 2011.
